

Admissions and Advising: Working Together

Presenters Jennifer Ewald
St. Louis University

Location	Embassy III
----------	-------------

ACTION POINTS

- Advisors should attend admissions meetings to be familiar with issues and trends and to share insights on same
- Advisors should be familiar with admissions policies for particular programs
- Advisors should be familiar with foreign educational systems/credentials
- Advisors should debrief admissions staff on food service/dietary issues
- Advisors should debrief admissions staff on employment issues
- Who does new student orientation – should be a shared activity
- Admissions should be familiar with immigration basics – visa vs PR
- Admissions should be familiar with visa types – incidental to status
- Admissions should be familiar with visa issuance process – time-line
- Advisors debrief admissions staff on Housing issues & vice versa
- Admissions debriefs advisors on incoming students with issues – financial, English, housing, academic, etc.